Bare Spirits Nudes Letter

From Our President

Dear fellow Spirits,

Wow, that was some party! I woke up this morning after dreaming that all of you had elected me president—only to discover that it's true!

There is only one quality that I possess which, I believe, qualifies me at all for the job: I love our club Bare Spirits. I'll try my best to lend guidance as I seek all of yours to keep our club as uniquely incredible as it has been in our first stellar year. And have a ton of fun doing it.

Bare Spirits--the visionary idea of Jim and Julie just a short year ago—took off like a rocket, hasn't landed yet, and shows no sign of stopping. Which direction that trajectory takes us is up to us. As we bathe in the glow of our successful first year, let's pause and take a moment to take stock and think about what made it good and what might make it even better. At the next board meeting (February 11), we will be brainstorming questions for a general survey to guide that process.

Vice-President Judith, Secretary / Treasurer Gene, and our Directors: Don, Fernando, Milan, and Patti bring years of nudist experience and good judgment that I will certainly call upon as we seek to lead Bare Spirits into 2006. I couldn't have hand-picked a better bunch!

My thanks to the outgoing board who had to do everything for the first time, leaving us with an organized organization! My heartfelt thanks to Jim for all the advice I am going to ask him for this coming year!

Yours in spirit,

*Stephanie W. Hampton

Patti and Dan's Wedding Invitation

Dan and I will be getting married on Sunday June 4th. This is the anniversary of the first day that we met. We will be getting married at the place that we met as well... Bare Spirits open house. We wish to share this wonderful day with all of our friends. More details will follow as we progress with the plans. We have registered at Target and Linens N Things. Yes this will be a nudist function.

From our Vice President

With dreams of sunshine in our heads, the Bare Spirits met on a blustery January day to kick off our second year. In the somewhat unorthodox round of nominations, we ended up with a pool of the willing. I personally wish we could have just expanded the board to include all the worthy contenders, but our by-laws limit us to seven. For 2006 we shall be referring our leader as Madame President. Congratulations to Stephanie and let me say I'm impressed that it took here only one day to send out ideas and questions for the new board to consider. The plan is to come up with a survey so that we may have input from all members.

At our February 11th meeting we will start planning our calendar of events. We need ideas for theme parties, travel events, nude hikes, and perhaps a beach clean-up or a "cannude" trip. The possibilities are endless. Each activity needs a sponsor, so consider volunteering. We seek participation from the entire Bare Spirits membership. Please bring your energy and ideas. See you on Saturday.

Yours in Spirit

Hi Bare Spirits

Thank You for reelecting me to the Bare Spirits board. I'm looking forward to seeing you all again next month. I'm having fun doing the Nudes Letter, but it's articles from YOU that make the Nudes Letter GREAT.

Update from Quartzsite, AZ

I'm still amazed by the friends I've made here at Magic Circle and the fun things we do. Yesterday was Super Bowl Sunday and we had a Chile Cook Off and Super Bowl Party. I need to remind you we are in the desert miles from water, electric and sewer. That doesn't slow down the people here. We had 12 entries in the Chili Cook Off and they were all great. After the taste testing, we all pigged out on Chili, Bread Sticks, Crackers, Vegetables and anything else you'd want. There was plenty for everybody. Then we started the Super Bowl Party. We had two large screen TVs, One Projection Screen, Satellite hookup, Surround Sound. It beat any Sports Bar I've ever seen. I only wish the right team had won but you can't have everything. The next big party is Valentines Day.

Jim and Bev

As I mentioned in my first Nudes Letter from Magic Circle this was all started by Jim and Bev 15 years ago. In the style of Magic Circle the Red Hat Girls had a Black Tie and Pearl Dinner to celebrate the occasion. Jim and Bev are retiring this year and giving up the reins of Magic Circle to new leaders elected by the members. They will still be active in the club but have more time to kick back and enjoy what they started. Thank You Jim and Bev for all you've done for the N-turist Lifestyle.
