Bare Spirits Nudes Letter

president's ponderings

Our Big Party

We're being talked about!
And it's all good!

Just barely a toddler in years, Bare Spirits has rightfully gained the reputation for fun and frolic. I think we should expect a large group at Our Big Party. Gene gathered many new member applications and renewals at the wedding, and I think this could be our best membership drive of the year.

When folks come to see us, they want to 'B S'!

Rick W (for he's a jolly good fellow) donated $110 worth of wonderful Bare Spirit Tee-Shirts to the club! WOW! At the June 3 meeting, the members voted to accept a $10 donation for each shirt ( which doubles the donation ) and earmark the money to help defray the cost of live music. The members have authorized

Judith K to find a band for $350. (She's so good ....)

I have directed Judith to organize but also to delegate more jobs and decisions to others as I don't want her to get overextended. A retired gal shouldn't have to work so hard! ( I know she'll probably Hotel California a lot more, but it's a small price to pay). Remember we all have something valuable to contribute --- ourselves.

If you have input for the party. contact Judith or email barespirits@hotmail.com .

Many hands make small work. Having said I must tell you that I will be unable to attend Our Big Party. I will be attending my first writers conference up in Portland. I also will be gone to Miami from June 23 to July 23, but I am still available online and wish to be included in committee email and news. I will be back for our July 29 meeting, raring to go.

From the Bride

Thank you too all of the Bare members and Bare friends for being a part of our wedding. We could not have asked for a more perfect setting. The sun came out at the right time. Someone upstairs was giving us his blessing! Thank you Dennis for performing the ceremony, I could not have asked for a more special person to do this. (We will definitely keep your record in tack)!! Thank you to Jim and Julie for the use of your home and for walking me down the aisle (Thankfully a shotgun was not needed)! Thank you Stephanie for the flowers, and helping to keep me grounded when the world was spinning! Thank you to Fernando and Pam for the cake, hair style and love. Thank you to Pete and Rick for the pictures and video (This will be one story I will enjoy showing our grandkids)! Thank you to Gene and Judith for the wine, music and just plain everything you have done. You two have given me so much over the years and I will never be able to express my gratitude or appreciation for how you have helped me to grow. Mostly though I really want to thank everyone for being there, for supporting us and for making this the most memorable day of our life. I am sure that I am forgetting someone (typical me!). We are blessed to have so many friends.

Thank you as well to everyone for your concern and your condolences on the passing of Dan's father. We appreciate the love and the support that we received during this moment in our lives.

I would also like to take a moment and congratulate Danny and Pam on their wedding! We wish you many years of love and happiness.

The Wedding

"happy the bride the sun shines on today"

Once more, the weathermen were wonderfully wrong and our wished-for sunshine broke out in time for the wedding and stayed for the entire afternoon and into the evening.

The toasts to the Bride and Groom wished them a long and happy life together. Many also thanked Dan and Patti for giving them hope that true love was still possible in the world and for allowing the married couples to revisit their own exchange of vows.

I was proud of our Bare Spirits members who went out of their way to warmly welcome the members of Dan's family who attended. (Rumor has it that at least two will be checking out social nudism).

The potluck was sumptuous. The bills were piled high in the Honeymoon Jar. The mood was as light as the champagne. It doesn't bet any better than this.

Thank you, Pati and Can, for sharing this joyous occasion with us. Long may you love!
