Bare Spirits Nudes Letter

Don't Forget - We are Meeting @ the Willies Sunshine Festival

Meeting Saturday September 2 at 3 PM
Sun Rover / Bare Spirit camp site

president's ponderings

Dear fellow Bare Spirits,

Cowabunga, dude! Was that a great party or what?

Over sixty happy nudists danced under the stars at our first annual Beach Party. The theme—Swimsuits 100% Off—was amply celebrated as people brought the swimsuits they would have worn, and we strung them along the fence. Dancing followed an afternoon of wet fun playing water volleyball and dryer fun with a Texas-hold-em poker tournament. Food, frolic, good fellowship, and perfect weather combined to make it a weekend to remember!

It may seem early for this, but I want everyone to begin thinking about stepping forward to take an officer or board position. As you may have figured out by now, I'm not qualified to be president, but I didn't let that stop me. My vision of the club is one in which the regular members take an active part and do not sit back to let others run the club. In order to keep our club as fun and as fair as possible, I feel we should regularly elect new and fresh leaders who really do not like politics but love the club. Ideally, we will have a new board every year which is a mix of more experienced members and new. As always, board meetings are open meetings and any members are welcome to come to listen and address the board.

Those of us who traveled to the SMR Music Festival had a grand time. Especially those who stayed for the fire on Monday (See article). Now...on to the Halloween parties at Willies and SMR! Party Hearty!

Jim and Julie's next neighborhood meeting should be quite interesting...

Fernando was diligent about parking all the cars during our party so, when he heard someone in the lot feverishly jostling their car back and forth, he ran to greet them. Appearing at their window in the altogether, a towel draped modestly over one shoulder, he offered his assistance. In one quick breath, the man driving said that they were neighbors who had come over to check out the "great music" and "...we are going now. Goodbye". Moral: When you crash a party, come dressed like the crowd...

NOTICE:

Stephanie is writing a fictional book set in the nudist world and is collecting any and all stories you may wish to share with her. No one would be identified and the stories may be changed beyond all recognition.

RV Fire at SMR Music Festival

As a family from Medford, OR. was leaving Squaw Mountain Ranch Monday morning, they notice fire coming out of the engine. Everyone got out safely but their Motor Home was a total loss.

The firemen arrived in 15 minutes and stopped the fire before it spread into a full Forest Fire.

Monday was much cooler than the weekend, there was no wind and it happened on a section of the road that had been cleared of brush by Earl F (a Bare Spirit). The firemen said if it had been 10 degrees warmer they may not have been able to stop the fire.

From the Editor

Please send articles, nudist jokes, and Pictures to put in the Nudes Letter to me at donbauerle@oip.net. Its articles from you that makes the Nudes Letter fun and informative to read.

I have attached the Bare Spirit Photo / Information release form. If you are willing to have you photo in the Nudes Letter or want to be listed in the Club Directory please complete the form and get it to me. I will have new directories at our next meeting.
